

Braco Hotel.

2nd April, 1971

The Greenloaming Busm Club held a ladies Night in Braco Hotel on 2nd April 1971.

The belkisk grace was said by Mr. W. Steenson, and an enjoyable meal was served by Mrs. Graham and her assistants.

The loyal Toast was proposed by Mr. Mcintosh. During the evening Mr. Mc Eldonie showed many interesting and colourful slides taken during his visit to Australia and New Zealand, and spoke of some of the high lights of his tour. This was much enjoyed.

A special guest of the evening was Mrs. Stalker. Stirling, who for very many years had printed the tickets and programmes for the Busm Supper. As Mrs. Stalker has now retired from business she is no longer able to do this, and to show their appreciation of all she had done over the years she was presented with a Shatburns Glass Paper Weight. Mrs. Stalker suitably replied.

During the evening songs were sung by Messrs W. McClelland, W. Steenson, W. Morrison, and recitations by W. Boag.

Mr. D. Campbell was a most able accompanist. A successful and happy evening closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.
