Greenloaming

4th February 1983

The Annual Supper of Greenloaming Burns Club was held in the Albanbank Hotel on the 4th February 1983 when 63 members attended.

The Chairman for the evening was Mr P J Mcintosh J.P.

Mr Bryson Macconnachie very ably addressed the Haggis following which the Chairman said the "Selkirk" Grace and the company then enjoyed an excellent meal served by the proprietors.

The Chairman then proposed the Royal Toast following which the National Anthem was sung by the company.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and then Mr Willis in person commenced the proceedings proper with the song "A Man's Man for a' that".

The Chairman then introduced the main speaker for the evening Mr John Cachie who was no stranger to the company having proposed the "Toast to the Ladies the previous year.

Mr Cachie proposed the toast "The Immortal Memory" after which he asked the members to be "upstanding and drunk to" "The Immortal Memory of Robert Burns".

The company then joined in singing
"Here was a leaf"

A short interval then followed.

On the resumption the evening continued as follows.

The Toast to "The Ladies" was given by John Prentice and replied to by
