

THE VISION

Newsletter of the Robert Burns World Federation

Issue 68 – May 2024

Many thanks to those who sent in contributions for this edition of 'The Vision'. Once again, we have an extensive review of events and news from around the Robert Burns WORLD Federation.

I would like to acknowledge the assistance of Marilyn Rowan from the St. Andrews Burns Club, who has kindly offered to proofread and advise on the production of this periodical.

As you will note, the RBWF Annual Conference and AGM will be held at the Riverside Lodge Hotel, Irvine, on September 13th to 15th, 2024. With the assistance and cooperation of The Irvine Burns Club, the RBWF Events Committee has scheduled a great weekend. We look forward to seeing you there.

In this Edition of The Vision

- Page 2 RBWF Conference - Irvine
- Page 3/7 Irvine Burns Club & RBWF Conf
- Page 8 Largs Cronies Burns Club
- Page 9 Seaton Burns Club
- Page 10 Elma Connor - Honoured
- Page 11 Queens Anniversary Prize
- Page 12/13 Robby Rammy
- Page 14 International Essay Competition
- Page 15 AABC Quiz Winners

Burns & the Month of May

Alexander 'Lang Sandy' Wood died in Edinburgh on May 12th, 1807, aged 81. Wood treated the poet's leg injury in 1787 and became friends with Burns. He was a well known and popular figure in Edinburgh with a reputation for a warm and generous nature. A member of many convivial

